BALI MAP

Situated between Java and Lombok, the island of Bali is located 8 to 9 degrees south of the equator with the Java Sea to the north, the Indian Ocean to the south. Bali's covers an area of 5,636 km<sup>2</sup> or 0.29% of Indonesia, measuring just 90km long the north-south axis and less than about 140km from west to east. Divided into three areas of water, the North Bali Sea is about 3,168km<sup>2</sup>, the East about 3.350km<sup>2</sup>, and the West about 2,982km<sup>2</sup>. Bali Sea covers an area of 9,500km<sup>2</sup>. The North Bali sea runs along the coastline of Buleleng, the East Bali Sea runs along the coastline of Karangasem, Klungkung and Gianyar, and the West Bali Sea include the coastline of Badung Tabanan and Jembrana.

Bali has a long chain of history from the ice-age era (pre-historic time) to modern, global civilization era. With a dynamic characteristic indicating selectivity and flexibility, the Balinese culture initially reflects a configuration of an expressive culture dominated by religious, solidarity and aesthetic values. Nowadays, it develops along with the adoption of foreign values especially in the aspects of the economic, science and technology, as a result of the global modernization. In general, the history of Bali is divided into three different eras including the pre-historic, the Hindu-Buddhist era and the modern culture.

BALINESE COMPOUND

Bagus Jati Wedding Compound: unique and historical

In ancient times there was a small village known as Jati, where a revered holy man lived. A large tree “suren” grew along side the holy man’s house and nearby was the temple where Villagers often requested his prayers for a long and healthy life. Today, the Bagus Jati Wedding Compound is built right on the premises of the old village and the land where the holy man’s house was situated. The tree is still alive today.

All buildings of this compound have been constructed in line with the Balinese concept of Tri Mandala and Balinese manuscripts concerning architecture. The Tri Mandala is the concept of the three levels of space relating to man’s basic relationships with the environment, society, and God. All levels must be arranged in harmony, so that all living things can achieve happiness.

Remaining true to Tri Mandala concept, the Bagus Jati wedding compound is divided into three levels of space, the main gate and high tower, the bale, and third the public and family temples.

The Facilities

Bagus Jati Wedding Compound has complete facilities:

- Private Wedding Compound surrounded by gate.
- Wedding Villa
- Lovely Private Pool
- Balinese Wedding Blessing Venue (Bale Gede)
- Multifunctional Venue
- Ceremony Preparation Venue (Bale Saka Nem)

Balinese Wedding Ceremony

The Balinese wedding ceremony is a process of uniting a man and a woman with their vows and purifying them in the name of Ida Sang Hyang Widhi Wasa, and then to be acknowledged by society as husband and wife. The purpose of this ceremony is to purify the wedding couple, both, physically and spiritually.
